Natural Flowers for Easter.

Nearly everybody will be wanting Flowers when Easter morning dawns. Beauty - bright blooms will be sent from friend to friend, carrying with their fragrance, expressions of courtesy, or suggestions of tenderer emotions. It is high carnival time for flo ists. How their prices soar! Always extortionate-at Easter, they go far beyond their usual limits, and fairly wring increased profits from the Flower-buying public.

Flowers are not sold by us regularly. But we think we serve you advantageously by selling them at this period. For that reason arrangements have been made that give us a brilliant display from which you may choose at the most popular of popular prices-probably a fifth of what some of the exclusive stores charge.
